The Internal Revenue Service requires that Temporary Disability Income payments made to you be reported to them as they will be treated as a part of your taxable income. As a result, these payments are subject to F.I.C.A. Taxes, Federal Income Taxes and New Jersey State Income Taxes. The appropriate deduction will automatically be made from your payments for FICA and New Jersey State Income Taxes. If you would like to have Federal Income Tax withheld from your payments, you may request withholding by making this election below:

Please complete this election form by selecting either Option A or Option B below.

Disability income payments will not start until this section is completed.

Option A _____ I do not want to have Federal Income Tax withheld from Temporary Disability Income payments made to me.

Option B _____ I elect to have $ _____ withheld for Federal Income Taxes from each Temporary Disability payment made to me.
