Under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), all individuals are required to maintain health insurance coverage. The Plan is required to provide you with a 1095B form detailing who in your family has received coverage from the Welfare Fund. The IRS requires an exact match on the spelling of each name and Social Security number, as indicated on the Social Security cards for you and each of your eligible dependents. If there is any deviation, the IRS will reject the submission of your 1095 B information. Failure to provide correct information could result in the IRS accessing penalties to you when you file your income taxes.
