The following is a brief outline of your Temporary Disability Benefit Program. These benefits are paid to all eligible employees during periods of disability which are not work-connected. The employer is required to pay the total cost of providing this coverage. No employee contributions are necessary.

Disability must occur while employed by a covered employer of the New Jersey Electrical Workers Temporary Disability Benefits Trust Fund or within twenty-eight (28) days of the termination of such employment provided the member remains unemployed by a subject employer during said 28 days. For disabilities which occur in excess of 28 days of termination of such employment, please refer to the Supplemental Disability Benefit section below.

Maximum Duration

Temporary Disability Benefits are payable for up to 26 weeks for each “PERIOD OF DISABILITY.” “PERIOD OF DISABILITY” is defined under definitions in Section 43:21-27 of the New Jersey Temporary Disability Benefit Law.

Benefit Amount Payable

The amount Temporary Disability Benefit payable is two-thirds of the employee’s average weekly pay, up to a maximum of $696 per week. The minimum benefit is $294 per week. This benefit commences on the first day of disability due to accident and on the fourth day of disability due to sickness. If benefits are payable for three consecutive weeks or more, then benefits shall be payable from the first day of sickness. Employees can request that the average weekly wage be calculated using 26 weeks if the 8 week calculation does not equal their average weekly wages.

NEW JERSEY ELECTRICAL WORKERS

An application for Temporary Disability Benefits must be filed and submitted to I. E. Shaffer & Co. or to the State of New Jersey. Maximum Duration

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974 (“ERISA”)

As an employee eligible under the New Jersey Electrical Workers’ Temporary Disability Benefit Trust Fund, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”). ERISA states that all eligible employees will be entitled to:

- Examine without charge at I.E. Shaffer & Company, 830 Bear Tavern Road, PO Box 1028, West Trenton, NJ 08628, all Plan documents including collective bargaining agreements and copies of all such documents filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor, such as detailed annual reports and descriptions of the Plan.
- Obtain copies of all Plan documents and other Plan information upon written request to the Board of Trustees. The Trustees may make reasonable charge for the copies.
- Receive a summary of the Plan’s annual financial report. The Trustees are required to furnish every participant with a copy of this summary.

The Trustees and anyone else with responsibility for managing or operating the Plan have certain obligations under the law. These “fiduciaries” must operate the Plan prudently and in the interests of you and other Plan Participants and beneficiaries. You have a right to get your benefits under the provision of the Plan and under ERISA. No one, whether employer, union or anyone else, can discriminate against you because you pursue your rights.

If your claim for a benefit is denied, in whole or in part, you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have the Trustees review and reconsider your claim.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plan and do not receive them within thirty (30) days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Board of Trustees to provide the materials and pay you up to $110.00 a day until you receive them unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Trustees. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan’s money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees.

IF YOU LOSE, THE COURT MAY ORDER YOU TO PAY THESE COSTS AND FEES, FOR EXAMPLE, IF IT FINDS YOUR CLAIM FRIVOLOUS.
